

Studies in the Holiness and Pentecostal Movements

Penn State University Press proposal guide for prospective series authors

Proposal:

In 3 to 5 pages, please explore the following. Please also include a CV and a sample chapter, if possible.

- What is the book about?
- Why is it important? What contributions will it make to the field? What is innovative?
- Clarify scope and focus
- Discuss audience and market
- Discuss fit with the series
- Provide an annotated table of contents
- Provide a brief discussion of your credentials
- Provide a timetable for completion

If your proposed manuscript is a revised dissertation:

- When was it defended?
- Be clear about where you are in the revision process
- Discuss what revisions you've made and/or outline your revision plan
- Is the dissertation available online? Has it been embargoed?

If your proposed manuscript is an edited collection:

- Discuss the origins of the project
- How will the essays be organized?
- What makes this collection cohesive?

Manuscript:

- House style: Chicago Manual of Style, full bibliography and short style citations throughout
- Goal length: Fewer than 85,000 words, including notes and bibliography
- Be cognizant of copyright status or fair use for any images, or long excerpts of previously published material you wish to include

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY PRESS

820 N. University Drive
USB 1, Suite C
University Park, PA 16802

t: 814.865.1327
f: 814.863.1408

www.psupress.org